

HOSPITAL WITH AN "OPEN DOOR"

New St. Francis', Located in the Bronx Borough, Begins Its Charitable Undertaking.

TO CARE FOR STRICKEN POOR

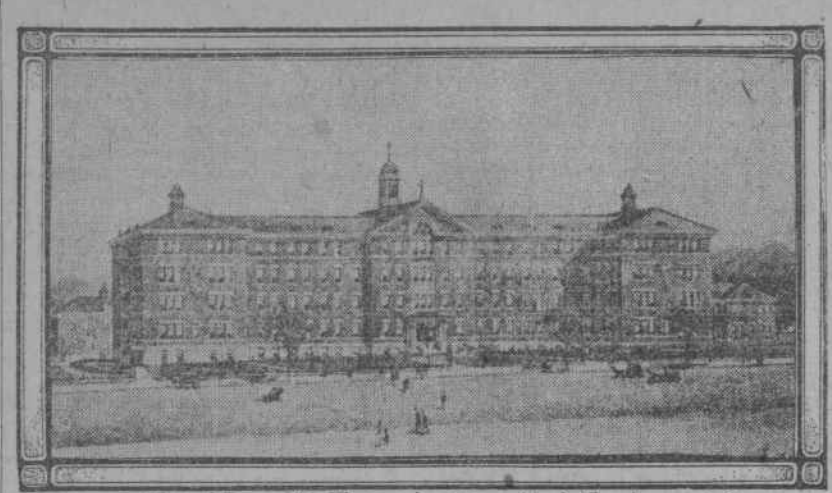

Imposing, Thoroughly Modern Building, in Which None Will Be Refused While a Bed Is Vacant.

New St. Francis Hospital, which was formally dedicated by Archbishop Farley on March 1, has now been opened for the reception of patients. It is situated in the Borough of the Bronx and occupies the block bounded by 142d and 143d streets and Brook and St. Ann's avenues. Ground was broken in December, 1902, and the cornerstone laid on December 3, 1902.

It is under the charge of the Sisters of the Poor of St. Francis, who have conducted the old and well known St. Francis' Hospital, in Fifth street, near avenue B, since 1865. Since the opening of the new building in the Bronx the old institution has ceased to be an active general hospital. It will be an annex to the new one and will be devoted entirely to the care of chronic and incurable cases. There will be accommodations for more than three hundred and fifty patients.

St. Francis' Hospital is essentially a charitable institution and is largely supported by such contributions as the Sisters gather from door to door. Unfortunate victims of illness and poverty, regardless of race, creed or nationality, are always accorded a warm welcome.

Dr. John Dorring is physician in chief to the new hospital. On the consulting staff are Drs. George F. Shady and Carl H. Lellmann, who have been connected with the hospital for over thirty years; Frank E. Miller, George M. Daboulis and Charles M. Cauldwell. Dr. John Dorring, who has been connected with the St. Francis' Hospital for twenty-four years, and who has a high reputation as a diagnostician, has had much to do with bringing to a successful completion this great hospital.

The attending staff are Drs. Frederick Kammerer, A. Seibert, Fritz Schwyzer, Samuel Lloyd and L. F. Warner. The assistant visiting staff are Drs. Thomas F. McParlan, John J. Morrissey, John Elliot Shady and L. von Roeder. Dr. John F. McParlan is in charge of the X-ray department; pathologist, Dr. John H. Larkin.

There is, in addition, a resident staff. The buildings are substantial, of dignified appearance, devoid of all ornamentation and fireproof throughout. They are supplied with modern systems of plumbing, heating, lighting and ventilation. The main building faces 142d street, has a frontage of 226 feet and a depth of 107 feet at each wing. It contains eighteen large wards, several smaller ones, about twenty private rooms, and several reception rooms where convalescing patients may rest and receive their friends.

The Sisters' house, or convent, 120x24 feet, contains in the lower floors a commodious and well appointed kitchen, storerooms and accessories. In the upper floors are the mezzanine, but comfortably furnished quarters for the Sisters. Between the main building and the Sisters' house is a beautiful chapel, 60x30 feet. The ground and buildings cost between $300,000 and $500,000, or about $2,000 a bed, a very low figure when compared with other modern institutions of the same character.

Anti-Smoke Law Will Be Enforced

League for Suppression of Nuisance Will Employ Counsel to Prosecute Violators.

Pursuing their crusade against the smoke nuisance, members of the Anti-Smoke League, headed by Charles T. Barney, yesterday announced their intention of retaining counsel to see that the law on the subject is enforced. The aim of the league is not to prevent the burning of soft coal, but to insist on proper firing and the practical abolition of smoke and to stop what it characterizes as a reckless disregard for the health and comfort of citizens.

Section 1261 of the City Charter provides that in all judicial proceedings, actions and orders of the Department of Health shall be regarded as just and legal. The following section provides that whoever shall violate any order of the department or resist the enforcement of the order.

Mr. Barney says Dr. Thomas Darlington, Commissioner of Health, holds that this law is sufficiently drastic to quench every fire in the city.

Some of the members of the league are Charles L. Atterbury, Joseph S. Auerbach, James L. Barclay, William L. Bull, John B. Borne, William A. Butler, Jr., George C. Clark, R. Fulton Cutting, Dr. George C. Dixon, Frederick Diekmann, Richard A. Watson, George F. Havenner, A. Foster Higgins, Thomas Hastings, Cyrus J. Lawrence, Joseph Laroque, Levi P. Morton, Dr. James W. Markoe, Charles F. McKim, the Rev. Henry M. Macrae, Walter G. Oakman, George R. Sheldon, Francis Lynde Stetson, Oakleigh Thorne and Lemuel Tams.

MRS. COLT TWICE DIVORCED.

Thomas W. Kiley the Third Husband of Brooklyn Woman—Kiley Still in Hiding.

After three days' search for Thomas W. Kiley, Inspector Cross said last night he was certain the missing banker and bigamist was in hiding in his dwelling, at No. 201 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, the home of his legal wife.

Although relatives have repeatedly declared that Kiley is not in the Jefferson avenue dwelling, Inspector Cross said he had received information which convinced him that Kiley had been there within a few hours.

At a meeting of the directors of the North Side Bank yesterday Kiley's resignation as president was accepted. Several of the directors said they had always believed Kiley was a bachelor. In the Register's office are records of real estate transfers in which Kiley described himself as a bachelor.

Mrs. Colt, Kiley's second wife, has figured in several lawsuits and has been divorced in Kansas and Connecticut. Her first husband was George C. Toussie, from whom she obtained a divorce in Bridgeport, Conn. She then resumed her maiden name, Flora Brown, and went to live with her father in McDonough street, where she became acquainted with John B. Colt, her second husband, to whom she was married in 1888. They went West to live and in 1889 Colt got a divorce.

GIVEN SIX CENTS DAMAGES.

Wealthy Westchester Whip Pays Little for Punching Coachman.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE HERALD.] WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Saturday.—A Westchester county sheriff's jury here today awarded a verdict for six cents against

John H. Shultz Jr., a wealthy whip, in favor of John Falk, his former coachman, because it was alleged that the coachman was punched in the jaw by Mr. Shultz, when the former swore at him in his stable at Pelham Manor.

Mr. Shultz is a son of John H. Shultz, a millionaire horse owner and a prominent member of the Empire City Trotting Club. The plaintiff sued for big damages, and the verdict was a victory for Mr. Shultz, as Falk will probably have to pay the costs because of the minimum verdict of the jury.

2,761 in Ship's Steerage.

No fewer than 2,761 steerage passengers were brought to New York yesterday by LORD RONALDSBAY HERE.

On his way to Japan the Earl of Ronaldsbay, who has travelled extensively and written several books, arrived yesterday on the Campania, of the Cunard line. Lord Ronaldsbay is accompanied by Captain C. L. Wardle Jackson. They expect to pass most of the summer in Japan, and if the weather is good may do much of their travelling in that country. They will be in New York only a few days.
